

Role: Early Childhood Weekend Coordinator

Role Type: Full-Time Salary

Oversees: Point Crew as needed

Member of Teams: Family

Relates Closely With: Preschool

Purpose:

The purpose of the Early Childhood Weekend Coordinator is to partner with the Family, Kids, Preteen, MS, and HS Pastors to ensure that the vision of family ministry is being strategically met within the scope of the Vision and Mission Statement for Eastern Hills Community Church. The EC Weekend Coordinator will focus on the recruiting and development of weekend point crew to execute an excellent and developmentally appropriate weekend program that accomplishes the mission of everyone experiencing Jesus Makes Life Better (JMLB).

Essential Functions:

- Point Crew Developer - It is very difficult for some parents to release their children into the care of a stranger, sometimes for the very first time. This role will recruit, develop, and deploy point crew to assure parents that their child is in safe hands so that the parents have the opportunity to experience Jesus makes life better (JMLB) in the worship experience.
- Partner with Families - This role is critical because a child's positive experience in church is initially THE THING that will guarantee a parent's return. As families return, this role will come alongside families to guide them on how to engage with and direct their child to know that JMLB
- Program Curator - This role will oversee and provide a safe, encouraging environment for children to experience for the first time God's love shown through Scripture. This role will use effective, age appropriate, and engaging programs to introduce Scripture so that kids can begin to understand how JMLB
